7. Motions

a. Room Bookings

Submitted by the Debating Society and seconded by Politics Society

Noted:

- Debating stated that problems exist in the current venue such as hearing council members
- Departments are supposed to be supporting student experience
- Problem with booking rooms amongst societies and room bans
- In summary debating are asking room bookings to review processes, and if not call upon exec to investigate
- Dan Sam (VP Activities) commended debating for putting the motion forward. As council is the platform for this and it is encouraged
- Dan Sam (VP Activities) stated that the university is already working on the issue
- Dan Sam (VP Activities) reiterated that tables and chairs are put back properly and litter is tidied up
- This issue has gone to the vice chancellor and she has asked for an audit of room bookings and timetabling
- New system should be implemented in September
- Enactus stated their issue was based on circumstantial evidence and they now have a process of having a security/staff member to sign off that the room was okay

- Dan Sam (VP Activities) stated that if you go into a room and it is a mess please alert someone and take pictures
- Juggling queried if meets of society/clubs could be added onto timetables on blackboard
- Dan Sam (VP Activities) stated that the new website is more user friendly; for queries with blackboard there is a session at 2pm in the Main Building today
- LARP stated issues with getting rooms unlocked and booking confirmations not being accepted as proof of booking the room

Agreed:

- Motion to be sent to student council 8th February

Action:

- Debating to present motion at student council 8th February

b. Sponsorship Policy

Submitted by Dan Sam (VP Activities) and seconded by Andrew Twagira (VP Welfare and Diversity)

Noted:

- Overview of the current by-law 7.6 in the union constitution stating that entering into agreements with bars and nightclubs (except for engine shed) are prohibited.
- The union currently has a working relationship with the Engine Shed
- Dan Sam opened a discussion as to whether the by-law is out of touch and the impact of removing the by-law and having a free market for sponsorship
- Debating were unaware of this by-law, and stated that many societies will benefit from it. It can protect societies in entering arrangements as they will not do it in secret
- Question posed by council member as to whether opening up a free market may impact on the grant received from the university and could this impact bigger/smaller activities differently
- Council member stated that they should embrace the student scene of campus, shouldn't penalize some societies if they are working harder than others, should embrace off campus life and it would allow activities to flourish
- LARP reiterated that societies may need to be careful as could affect grant and development funding
- Juggling stated that the rules surrounding Alcohol should therefore be reviewed as it may cause a grey area
- voting rights at council go to vice chairs Gareth Salter and Abi Osundairo, as well as Dan Sam (VP Activities) and Gooleswari Seeburn (Societies Officer)
